OLE MISS SOFTBALL STADIUM

The Ole Miss Softball Stadium has been the home for the Rebel softball team for nearly the entirety of the program, bringing in thousands of fans over the years to Oxford. When the university first started its fastpitch program in 1997, it opened with no venue of its own as the team competed at the city softball fields. But, a year later, that changed as the Rebels opened up the Ole Miss Softball Complex in 1998.

A $1.2 million renovation project completed in the spring of 2006 included a new indoor hitting/practice facility, a new press box, refurbished dugouts, new video and audio systems, a brick facade lining the grandstands, new lighting, new fencing and netting and a central seating section with chair-back seats.

Included in the 2006 renovation project was the Rebels' very own indoor facility, which provides the student-athletes a chance to escape from inclement weather, while also offering more room for practices, batting practice areas prior to games, and space for camp instruction. The 6,650 square foot building features three batting cages at one end, and an open area on the other for tee work and other drills. The facility recently underwent a facelift in 2016 to replace the surface, which now features a "Fielders Choice" turf, Enviroturf's high quality non-infill turf. New nets were also installed that allows anywhere from one open shell to three lanes, making the transformation of the facility an easy task depending on the drill.

A venue that hosted the 2011 SEC Softball Championship, the complex features an outfield terrace behind the left field wall similar to the outfield seating at Swayze Field where the Ole Miss baseball team competes. In preparation for the league championship in 2011, upgrades were made to include the outfield terrace, as well as a grilling area, pavilion and a camera platform in center field. Other improvements at the time included a new LED video board and scoreboard, but that has since been replaced prior to the 2016 season by a state-of-the art board that ranks as one of the biggest and brightest in college softball.

In May 2023, the Rebels played their 608th and final game in the Ole Miss Softball Complex before its new chapter as the Ole Miss Softball Stadium. Down to their final three outs and trailing by three, Aynslie Furbush and Keila Kamoku crushed back-to-back solo home runs in the seventh, giving the Rebels life. Jalia Lassiter, Tate Whitley and Paige Smith all reached base to put the pressure on the Tide. With a chance to walk-off No. 14 Alabama, Mya Stevenson took the second pitch from All-American Montana Fouts and drove it into the gap in left to help Ole Miss complete a four-run comeback.

Just 23 days later, construction crews began demolition on the ballpark as part of a brand new $32 million facility upgrade with Ole Miss' Champions. Now. campaign. The new stadium renovations include numerous fan amenities, upgraded grandstands, restrooms and concessions. The team will benefit from enlarged bullpens, as well as improved team offices, locker rooms and storage.

JAMIE TRACHSEL

RUN DOWN

Head coach Jamie Trachsel enters her fifth season at the helm of the Ole Miss softball program heading into the 2025 season. In just four years in Oxford, she has guided the Rebels to four consecutive NCAA Regional appearances. In 2023, she became the fastest coach in Ole Miss Softball history to achieve her 100th victory, needing only 159 games to accomplish the feat.

The sixth head softball coach in Ole Miss history and the 2019 NFCA Great Lakes Region Coach of the Year, Trachsel has collected 11 conference regular-season and tournament championships, developed 48 all-conference honorees, and guided her teams to the NCAA Tournament in 11-of-13 seasons, including a trip to the 2019 Women's College World Series with the Golden Gophers.

2024 represented another strong campaign for the Rebels under Trachsel's leadership, as they played some of their best softball down the stretch. The Rebels recorded a 31-27 record and 7-17 mark in SEC play. The season began with a 9-1 start to notch the best start in program history through 10 games.

The Rebels solidified their NCAA tournament resume in conference play, as they earned their first conference win over No. 17 Mississippi State. The results only improved, as the Rebels promptly won both their highest-ranked victory under Trachsel and the highest-ranked series win in program history, with the Rebels taking two of three games from No. 2 LSU in Baton Rouge, La.

Over their final eight games against SEC opponents, the Rebels went 5-3, earning two wins over Auburn in Oxford, before taking two of three from No. 8 Arkansas in Fayetteville. The Rebels added another win over No. 25 Kentucky in the SEC Tournament for good measure. Their efforts helped the Rebels return to the NCAA Tournament, where they competed in the Lafayette Regional.

Despite playing the sixth toughest schedule in the nation in 2023, Trachsel's squad battled adversity and finished with a 32-28 record and an 8-16 mark in the SEC. The Rebels solidified their spot in the postseason after knocking off ranked opponents in conference play all season, earning a spot in the Salt Lake City Regional, where they went on to play in the Regional Final.

Ole Miss opened the season in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, before returning stateside for three other non-conference tournaments, including two in Oxford. The Rebels began conference play where they would earn victories over No. 10 LSU, No. 19 Auburn, No. 15 Kentucky, No. 21 Texas A&M, No. 14 Florida and No. 14 Alabama, as well as taking the series at Missouri. Trachsel also earned her 100th career victory at Ole Miss on April 9, becoming the fastest coach in program history to reach the milestone. Ole Miss earned a spot as the No. 11 seed in the SEC Tournament and went on to win its opening game for the second consecutive year. In the NCAA Tournament, the Rebels advanced to the Regional Final with a pair of wins over Baylor, including a shutout, but fell to the No. 15 national seed and host Utah.

Freshman Jalia Lassiter earned NFCA All-South Region honors, grabbing a spot on the third team, while senior Tate Whitley was named to the SEC All-Defensive team. Whitley and senior Mya Stevenson also registered their 200th career hits nearly a week apart. Graduate transfer Savana Sikes tied for the team lead with 48 hits, while fifth-year senior Mikayla Allee put together the best offensive season of her career, posting a .288 average (third on the team) and 46 hits (18 more than her single-season high). The Rebels also saw success in the circle, with Aynslie Furbush and Catelyn Riley leading the way with nine and eight wins, respectively.

The 2022 campaign was one for the record books as Trachsel and Ole Miss got off to a blistering 21-4 start to the season, tied for the best record through 25 games in program history. The Rebels won 41 games on the year, the second most in a single season in school history. With a tough conference slate that featured three consecutive series against top-10 opponents, Ole Miss managed to pick up marquee wins over No. 9 Arkansas and No. 8 Kentucky. The Rebels got hot down the stretch, winning nine of their final 11 contests and taking the series from No. 11 Tennessee and at No. 16 Georgia to close out the regular season and tie the program record with 38 regular season victories.

Ending the regular season with a 38-16 mark, Ole Miss cracked the top 25 in multiple polls and finished eighth in the SEC. The Rebels went on to win a game at the SEC Tournament for the first time since 2019 and secured the program's sixth straight NCAA Regional bid, earning the No. 2 seed in the Los Angeles Regional. Despite dropping the opening game of the regional, they climbed back into the regional final with wins over Grand Canyon and LMU before falling to No. 5 UCLA.

Following a standout season, three Rebel outfielders in Tate Whitley, Abbey Latham and Bre Roper each earned NFCA All-Region honors. Whitley led the SEC in hits with 74 during the regular season, while Latham became the program's all-time RBI leader in March. Roper shined as a graduate transfer, ranking second on the team with a .364 batting average and 64 hits and 39 runs scored. Ole Miss also saw unparalleled success in the classroom, posting a 3.70 team GPA during the spring semester, the highest in program history.

Picked to finish dead last in the 2021 SEC Preseason Coaches Poll, Ole Miss exceeded all expectations in Trachsel's first campaign at the helm. The Rebsels collected a 36-22 overall record, including a 12-12 mark in SEC play, good for an eighth place finish and the second most conference victories in program history. Ole Miss received its fifth-consecutive NCAA Tournament bid for its work, earning the No. 2 seed in the Tucson Regional. The Rebels made Oxford a fortress in Trachsel's inaugural season, posting a 24-3 home record, including the first-ever sweep of rival Mississippi State and a three-game sweep of No. 25 UCF.

Under Trachsel's guidance, four Rebels received SEC postseason honors, tied for the most in a single season in program history. Paige Smith was named to the newly minted SEC All-Newcomer Team, while rookies Blaise Biringer and Aynslie Furbush received a nod for the all-freshman squad. One of the most feared backstops in the country, Rebel catcher Autumn Gillespie was tabbed to the SEC All-Defense Team.

ALMA MATER	ST. CLOUD STATE, '01
CAREER RECORD	486-280-1 (14 SEASONS)
OLE MISS RECORD	140-96 (FOUR SEASONS)

In her three-year stint with the Golden Gophers, Trachsel took over a program on the rise and kept the ascent going to the upper echelon of the softball world. After finishing off her inaugural season in Minneapolis with 41 wins, a Big Ten Tournament title, an appearance in the NCAA Seattle Regional Final and four All-Big Ten and NFCA All-Region honorees, Trachsel helmed the Gophers to their most prolific season in history in 2019.

Playing arguably the nation's most challenging schedule, Minnesota racked up a 41-12 record during the regular season, setting the stage for a magical postseason run. The No. 8 national seeded Gophers ripped through the Regional and Super Regional rounds of the NCAA Tournament with five straight wins, including two apiece over SEC foes in No. 14 Georgia and No. 10 LSU. Minnesota then set sail for Oklahoma City, making its first trip to the Women's College World Series in the NCAA era.

Five Gophers were named to the All-Big Ten and NFCA All-Region squads, respectively, following Trachsel's second season at Minnesota, while Gopher ace Amber Fiser was named the Big Ten Pitcher of the Year and a First Team All-American.

Minnesota finished the season ranked No. 8 in both the USA Today/NFCA Top-25 Coaches Poll and the ESPN.com/USA Softball Collegiate Top-25 Poll. The No. 8 ranking is the highest the Gophers have finished a season in either major poll. Minnesota also finished No. 7 in the NCAA RPI, which is not only the school's highest RPI to finish a season, but the highest at any point in program history. For their efforts, Trachsel and her staff were named the NFCA Great Lakes All-Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

Ranked in the top 10 in five different preseason polls heading into 2020, Trachsel and the Gophers hit the ground running once again. Minnesota collected a 15-9-1 record prior to the cancelation of the remainder of the spring season due to the coronavirus, including ranked wins over No. 5 Florida State and No. 19 Missouri. Sophomore slugger Natalie DenHartog was tabbed a Shortened Season All-American by Softball America.

The Gophers also made history in the classroom under Trachsel. Their spring 2019 semester GPA of 3.63 was the highest in program history, while eleven different players notched 2019 Academic All-Big Ten honors. In total, Trachsel's players have received 41 academic all-league honors.

Prior to taking over Minnesota, Trachsel spent one season in the Big 12 as the head coach at Iowa State. She led the Cyclones to a fifth-place conference finish in 2017, garnering their highest league win total in eight years along with the best regular-season Big 12 finish since 1994. Trachsel's squad also saw improvement in the circle, dropping its team ERA by nearly two runs per game to the lowest since 2010. Two Cyclones earned NFCA All-Region First Team honors in Kelsey McFarland and Sami Williams, the latter selected to the All-Big 12 First Team as well, one of only three freshmen league-wide to earn that award.

Trachsel arrived in Ames following 14 seasons at North Dakota State, including the final six as co-head coach. In those half-dozen seasons, NDSU compiled a 221-109 overall record (.670), a 98-19 mark (.838) in the Summit League and advanced to NCAA Regional play five times. The Bison won their conference regular-season championship and the tournament championship five times each with Trachsel as co-head coach.

NDSU won at least 30 games – including a school-record 45 in 2015 when it climbed as high as 41st in the NCAA Percentage Ratings Index (RPI) – for 10 straight seasons. The Bison advanced to the NCAA Regionals in seven of Trachsel's final eight seasons in Fargo. In 2009, NDSU pulled a shocking upset, claiming the Norman Regional over perennial power Oklahoma.

Her tenure with NDSU began with two seasons (2002-04) as a graduate assistant, followed by three (2005-07) as an assistant coach, three (2008-10) as associate head coach and the last six (2011-16) as co-head coach.

During her stay in Fargo, Trachsel coached five All-Americans, 25 All-Region players and 59 All-Conference student athletes, including five Summit League Players of the Year and five Summit League Pitchers of the Year. The Minnesota native was also a part of staffs recognized as NFCA Midwest Region Coaching Staff of the Year twice in 2009 and 2015.

As a player, Trachsel competed for NCAA Division II program St. Cloud State in St. Cloud, Minnesota. She led the Huskies to three straight NCAA Division II tournament appearances and one conference title. Trachsel made the 1999 NCAA Division II All-Region Tournament Team and received All-Academic honors from the NFCA twice. SCSU won 127 games during her career.

As a prep athlete, Trachsel earned 17 letters across four sports at Duluth (Minn.) Central High School. She is also a nine-time national champion in racquetball (1988-93 and 2003-05).

Trachsel earned a bachelor's degree in sports management (minors in coaching and human relations) from St. Cloud State in 2001. She added a Master of Education degree in athletics administration from North Dakota State in 2006.

BOBBY BUCHANAN

RUN DOWN

Ole Miss softball head coach Jamie Trachsel added Bobby Buchanan as an assistant coach to the program in July 2024.

Buchanan spent the 2024 season on staff at Texas A&M as the director of player development, where he was a member of a team that reached the Austin Super Regional of the NCAA Tournament and won 44 games. He was in charge of creating player development plans and KPI's, scouting opponents, creating scouting reports, and analyzing team data.

Prior to his first year in the SEC, Buchanan was the hitting coach at Texas Lutheran in 2023, where he helped them reach the NCAA Division III regional. He played a key role in developing one All-American, five NFCA All-Regional members, and nine All-American Southwest Conference honorees.

Outside of his time as a collegiate coach, Buchanan founded High & Inside in 2020, where he serves as a consultant and private softball instructor for player development and scouting, and partners with SoftballCloud, Yakkertech, and S2 Cognition. Through High & Inside, he has worked with four Women's College World Series teams and numerous Super Regional programs.

Buchanan was the hitting coach and player development coach for the Texas Bombers from 2021-23, where he led numerous Division I athletes, and helped lead the team to the Alliance National Championship.

In 2019, Buchanan was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for UT Arlington. With the Mavericks, he helped the team defeat multiple top-25 schools including Arkansas, Baylor, and Oklahoma State. He played an instrumental role in development of 2019 NCAA hits leader Laura Curry and saw two of three outfielders earn all-conference honors.

Prior to his time in Arlington, Buchanan spent 2018 as the head coach at Louisiana College where he helped lead the team to their best finish in the conference standings over the last eight seasons.

Buchanan was previously at Southern University in 2017 as the associate head coach, was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at North Dakota in 2016, and was a volunteer assistant coach for three seasons at Texas State from 2012-14 and at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi in 2015.

He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Texas State in 2014.

EHREN EARLEYWINE

RUN DOWN

Ehren Earleywine joins the Ole Miss softball staff for his first season with the Rebels under head coach Jamie Trachsel.

A three-time conference coach of the year with nearly 600 wins in his career, Earleywine brings a wealth of experience to Oxford. In his 11 seasons at the helm of the Missouri softball program, the Tigers made three Women's College World Series appearances, recorded the first three 50-win seasons in school history and advanced to eight NCAA Super Regionals. With a career winning percentage of .712 (557-193 over 14 seasons), Earleywine is truly among the top coaches in the nation. He helped the Tigers average 43.8 wins per season in Columbia.

Prior to coaching the Rebels, Earleywine served as District Activities Director for Jefferson City Public Schools for five years, where he managed and directed 300 coaches and 100 teams.

Under Earleywine, Missouri Softball became one of the top programs in the nation. In 11 seasons, the three-time conference coach of the year became the first Missouri softball coach to lead his squad to six-straight NCAA Regional titles, one of only three schools (joined by Arizona State and Florida) in the country to accomplish the feat from 2008-13. The Tigers competed at the highest level during Earleywine's time in Columbia, leading Missouri to capture two of the program's seven all-time conference championships.

Striving for excellence in all phases of the game, shut-down pitching, consistent fielding and explosive offense were all constants during his tenure in Columbia. With Earleywine at the reins, Missouri's batting averages steadily rose. The program saw a .313 mark in 2009, a .304 mark in 2013, .310 rate in 2014 and .320 posting in 2015. Additionally, the team ERA declined, highlighted by 2011's 1.40 mark, the Tiger's best end of the year ERA since 1998.

As part of a stellar 50-12 overall record in 2009, Mizzou won the 2009 Big 12 Conference Tournament. The Tigers followed that up with a Big 12 Regular Season Championship in 2011, posting a stout 53-10 overall record.

From 2009-11, Earleywine took Missouri to three straight Women's College World Series. His 2009 and 2010 teams finished seventh in Oklahoma City, and the 2011 squad finished sixth, all surpassing the 50-win threshold.
In Missouri's first season in the SEC in 2013, Earleywine's squad left an immediate impression, placing third in the league's regular season standings before finishing as runners-up at the SEC Tournament. The Tigers won the Columbia Regional to advance to their sixth-straight NCAA Super Regional. The following season, Mizzou finished third again in the SEC standings but failed to advance out of their home Regional. The Tigers bounced back in 2015 and 2016 with Super Regional appearances before punching their ticket to the 2017 Eugene Regional.

Mizzou's entire softball staff received deserved recognition while helping the program ascend to the upper echelon of college softball. Earleywine and crew were named NFCA Midwest Region Staff of the Year three times in a four-year span (2009, 2010, & 2012).

Prior to arriving at Missouri, Earleywine spent five seasons at Georgia Tech, serving as head coach for the final three years. Earleywine's teams made five consecutive NCAA Regional appearances, finishing runner-up on three occasions. Among his accomplishments, Earleywine's squads broke every offensive record in school history, setting eight ACC records along the way.

In 2006, Georgia Tech displayed the top offensive season for any program in ACC history. The Ramblin' Wreck claimed ACC regular season and tournament titles in 2005, and to his credit, Earleywine was named the 2005 ACC Coach of the Year. Named the top assistant coach at Georgia Tech in 2002, Earleywine served as the hitting and infield coach. During his two seasons as assistant coach, the Ramblin' Wreck hitters broke 16 school records and two conference records.

A 1994 graduate of Westminster College, Earleywine played baseball at Missouri State University (formerly Southwest Missouri State) for one year before transferring to the Fulton, Mo., school for the remainder of his collegiate career. Earleywine served as an assistant coach at Westminster through the 1997 campaign under the guidance of former Major League Baseball outfielder and former Tiger, Phil Bradley, then took the reins as head coach until 1999. Following his time at Westminster, Earleywine was named assistant baseball coach at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi in 2000, remaining there until 2002 before taking the head assistant coaching position at Georgia Tech.

A standout in men's major fastpitch softball, Earleywine was a four-time member of Team USA (2000, 2001, 2002, 2003), including being named captain for his final two seasons with the national team. In 2002, Team USA captured its first-ever gold medal in the Pan Am Qualifier, where Earleywine hit .429. During his career, Earleywine collected four medals: one gold, two silver and one bronze. At the 2003 Pan Am Games, hosted by the Dominican Republic, Earleywine helped lead Team USA to a silver medal, doing so again in the 1999 Pan Am Games held in Winnipeg, Canada. Earleywine and his team earned bronze in Valencia, Venezuela, at the 1998 Pan Am Qualifier.

A six-time American Softball Association (ASA) All-American, Earleywine was an All-World selection in 1999 by the International Softball Congress (ISC). As a member of the Decatur Pride, Earleywine's team earned the ASA Softball National Championship title in 1999, also taking World Championship honors in 2001 with the ISC.

NANCY EVANS

RUN DOWN

Ole Miss softball head coach Jamie Trachsel announced the addition of Nancy Evans, a six-time NCAA national champion pitcher and coach, to the Rebels' staff in June of 2024.

One of the most successful and highly decorated pitchers in NCAA history, Evans won three national championships at the University of Arizona (1994-98) and still holds the NCAA record with a .939 career winning percentage (124-8 overall record). She finished her collegiate career with a 0.98 career ERA and was named the 1998 Honda Sports Award recipient as National Player of the Year.

Evans was a two-time first-team All-American, the 1997 NCAA College World Series Most Outstanding Player, a three-time College World Series All-Tournament Team selection and a four-time All-Pacific Region and All-Pac-10 Conference honoree. She was also named to the Pac-12 All-Century Team in 2016, and in 2022, NCAA.com recognized her as one of the 11 best pitchers in collegiate softball history.

Last season, Evans served on staff at UIC as the Flames' pitching coach. She helped UIC post a 3.43 team ERA, its best mark since 2018. Under Evans, a pair of arms posted sub-3.00 marks in the circle.

Since 2021, Evans has also served on the Italian National Team staff, helping that country to a third-place finish at the 2022 European Championships in Barcelona, Spain. That was followed by two other third-place showings this past summer at the 2023 Canada Cup (in Surrey, British Columbia) and the Women's Softball World Cup qualifier (in Italy). Currently ranked No. 8 in the world, the Italian National Team has qualified for the 2024 Women's Softball World Cup Finals that will also be played in Italy.

From 2011-13, Evans coached on the collegiate level at DePaul University. During her time with the Blue Demons, she helped the program compile a 110-56 record and make two NCAA tournament appearances, while developing two-time All-American Kirsten Verdun in the circle.

Prior to jumping back into the collegiate ranks, Evans helped guide the Dutch National Team to the European championship in 2009 (the country's first title in 19 years), followed by a strong showing at the 2010 World Championships.

Evans began her coaching career at her alma mater from 1999-2007, first as a volunteer assistant and later as a full-time assistant coach. As Arizona's pitching coach, Evans helped lead the Wildcats to three more NCAA national titles and mentored an All-America hurler each season. Some of the legendary Arizona pitchers Evans developed were Becky Lemke, Jennie Finch, Alicia Hollowell and Taryne Mowatt.

Before coaching, Evans played seven seasons of professional softball, first with the Tampa Bay FireStix of the Women's Professional Softball League (formerly known as Women's Pro Fastpitch or WPF), helping lead that franchise to the 1999 WPSL title. She later signed with the Arizona Heat of National Pro Fastpitch (NPF), finishing her professional career as a three-time All-Star across both leagues and being named the 2004 NPF All-Star Game MVP.

Evans made her name in the circle during her collegiate career at the University of Arizona (1994-98), where she played an integral role in three of the Wildcats' NCAA national championships.

On the international stage, Evans participated in the 1996 and 2000 U.S. Olympic Team tryouts and was part of the 1997 U.S. National Team that won a gold medal at the Pan American Games.

Evans also shined in the classroom during her playing career, twice earning first-team Academic All-America citations and being chosen as the 1998 Academic All-America Team Member of the Year. In addition, she was a national nominee for the 1998 NCAA Woman of the Year award, recognizing her work in the community, as well as her academic and athletic success.

Evans' accomplishments as a student-athlete and a coach were later recognized by the University of Arizona. Her jersey number 13 was retired by the school in 2002, and she was inducted into the University of Arizona Sports Hall of Fame in the same year.

Evans graduated from Arizona in 1998 with her degree in psychology.
